Abstract:

In this research article titled "The Benefits of Marrying Maternal Uncle ", we will examine which planets and bhavas in the horoscope are compatible for marriage with maternal uncle. Are planets alone enough! or do we need bhavas as well. In this article, we are going to examine which planets and bhavas are compatible with this study.

Key Words: Lord of the 4th and 6th House, Moon, Mercury and Ketu, Lord of the Ascendant, Ascendant.

Introduction:

Let us analyse reason for marriage within a relationship. Marrying one's maternal uncle is also a custom that has been around for ages. Why should we search a groom for outside, when there is a groom within our relationship? When we choose a groom from outside, how will he take care of their daughter? Will he keep her happy, will he torture, her by demanding dowry?

Every mother is worried about how her daughter will be taken care of. If she gave her daughter to her younger brother, that is, maternal uncle, she expects that he will take care of her daughter well and be happy.

The reason being the couple will be with her family, and also the property will not go out to other hands. Also for the reason they are not aware of our customs and cultures of the groom form outside. There is a possibility that there will be a lot of worry about how the groom's parents will be, their family and the relatives as well.

How the mother-in-law will take care of her daughter. This is because if a woman marries her younger brother, that is, her maternal uncle, the above-mentioned problems will be reduced, as she need not enquire much about the groom and her daughter will be happy, and the relationship will be stronger. This marriage has been going on for a long time in our tradition and customs.
